

US Army Corps of Engineers

Institute for Water Resources

BUILDING STRONG®

IWR Water Supply Civil Works Business Support (2012)

Status: Completed

Purpose: 1. Perform the duties of the Manager of the Corps of Engineers Water Supply Business Line. 2. Develop the yearly water supply portion of the Civil Works budget from budget EC development through OMB passback. 3. Maintain the water supply database through coordination with IWR/CDM/OMBIL activities.

Objective: The IWR and Civil Works Water Supply Manager are one in the same. The responsibilities and purpose of the IWR Water Supply Business Line Manager are: 1. Develop a, The water supply portion of the yearly Civil Works budget. 2. Integrate a. To have knowledge of all IWR and Civil Works activities related to the respective business line. b. Cognizance of the Corps Strategic Plan, Integrated Watershed Management and the relationship to the respective business line. c. Foster integration at IWR between & across BL, CoP, RIT, and Center of X. 3. Think Critically a. To understand and seek the Corps Business Line future needs, identify information gaps, and provide support for future initiatives. 4. Evaluate a. Maintain an understanding of the concerns and problems of the HQ Business Lines Proponent and investigate what IWR skills are available to assist the HQ Business Lines Proponent 5. Execute a. Propose IWR projects and funding priorities to the Director

Benefits: The benefit of this project will ensure coordination, foster integration, maintain an understanding of the concerns and problems of the HQ Business Lines. This will ensure IWR is relevant in our support to the Corps Civil Works Business line Managers.

Progress:

Products:

Related Links:

Partners:
